AUCTIONEER—BRYANT WILLIAMS

MATRIMONIAL.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday from the office of the Fayette County Clerk, at Lexington, to William J. Koop, 40, salesman, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Ada Thompson, 28, of Paris.

TAFT—PETERSON

Virgil Peterson, Bourbon county farmer, and Miss Ella Taft, of Bath county, were married in Winchester, Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will reside at the home of the groom, near Millersburg.

HUTCHISON—LANTERN

A marriage license was issued from the office of the Nicholas County Clerk, at Carlisle, to Miss Minnie F. Hutchison, nineteen, and James Lantern, twenty-two, both of Paris. They were married later at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. M. T. Chandler, pastor of the Carlisle Methodist church.

THOMPSON—KOOP

Wm. J. Koop, salesman, and Miss Ada Thompson, both of Indianapolis, secured a marriage license in Lexington, Wednesday, and came to Paris, where they were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jeff Smith, on Fifteenth street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The bride had been visiting her sister for several days. By a pre-arranged plan Mr. Koop came to Paris for the ceremony. After a few days' honeymoon trip through the Bluegrass Mr. and Mrs. Koop will return to Indianapolis, where they will reside in the future.

HONICAN—MYERS

The Carlisle Mercury has the following regarding the recent marriage of a Paris girl: "Stealing a march on their friends, Miss Lula Honican and Mr. Geo. C. Myers went to Covington, Wednesday morning where they were united in marriage. After a short bridal trip they will return to this city to make their home. Until their new home on Locust street is completed, they will have rooms at the home of Mr. Myers' brother, Mr. J. W. Myers. The bride, whose home is in Paris, has been bookkeeper at the Bluegrass Produce Company for the past three years. She is an attractive young woman and has many friends. Mr. Myers is a well-known business man. He is a member of the firm of Ratliff Bros. Co. and is interested in several other business enterprises in this city."

LEE—MAHER

Miss Cora Lee, daughter of Mrs. W. J. Lee, of Paris, and Mr. John P. Maher, of the North Middletown vicinity, secured license here Wednesday, and were married at seven o'clock Wednesday night at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Father William O'Hare, pastor of the Church of the Annunciation. The ceremony was witnessed by Allie C. DeWitt, of near Paris, and Miss Mary Calnan, of Cincinnati, a niece of the groom.

Mrs. Maher is a charming young woman who has made Paris her home for several years, as a member of the Cumberland Telephone Co.'s force of operators in the Paris exchange. She is possessed of graces of character and personal charm that have endeared her to a host of friends. She is a sister of Mrs. Halie Perkins, of Paris. The groom is a wholesaler, industrious young farmer, whose friends are legion. Mr. and Mrs. Maher after a short honeymoon trip, will return to Paris and go to housekeeping on Mr. Maher's farm, near North Middletown. THE NEWS extends sincerest congratulations and good wishes to the newly-weds.

The mustache, we read, is trying desperately to stage a "come-back." Several specimens called to our attention certainly implied that confidence which is born of desperation, and might easily have been taken for a set of those new Finnegan eyebrows that had slipped down.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

Dr. George S. Varden sold a lot in White Addition to Paris to F. M. Quisenberry, L. & N. train dispatcher, for $500. Mr. Quisenberry is planning to erect a modern bungalow on the lot, which he will occupy as a home.

Elizur Dailey purchased of Mrs. Walter Hedges a vacant lot located on the east side of Houston avenue, in Paris, for $1,000. Mr. Dailey purchased the lot for investment purposes, and may erect a residence thereon.

PURCHASES FINE MARE

J. Miller Ward, of the "Sunnyside Farm," near Paris, recently purchased from a Madison county handler, a nine-year-old Rex Peavine mare, for which he paid $300. The mare is said to be a very fine specimen of horseflesh.

If there is a receipt for success, this is it: The Idea plus the Efort to use it, plus Persistence, these equal success.
